

INORMS sister associations seek nominations for INORMS AWARDS FOR EXCELLENCE IN RESEARCH MANAGEMENT LEADERSHIP 2020

In May 2020, the winners of the second INORMS Awards for Excellence in Research Management Leadership will be announced and presented with their awards in Hiroshima, Japan, during the INORMS 2020 Congress. Each INORMS member association will be invited to nominate just one individual and the search for these outstanding people starts now!

Eligibility Criteria

The INORMS Awards for Excellence in Research Management Leadership have been established to recognise outstanding examples of research management leaders who have made substantial contributions to the research management profession internationally.

Nominated candidates must be

- a current signed-up member of an INORMS association;
- able to show that their contributions are congruent with the objectives of INORMS;
- able to provide evidence of outstanding contributions to the research management profession; and
- able to provide evidence of how they will continue to provide visionary leadership in research management internationally.

Please note that INORMS member associations will have their own selection or nomination process, so for further information, please contact the association of which you are a member.

Closing Date for applications

INORMS member associations will have their own closing dates, so we recommend that you make contact with them immediately. Please note that member associations are required to have made their choice by 31 July 2019, so local selection processes are likely to be completed well before this.

INORMS AWARDS FOR EXCELLENCE IN RESEARCH MANAGEMENT LEADERSHIP 2020

Guidelines for Participating INORMS members.

About INORMS

INORMS brings together research management societies and associations internationally. Its purpose is to enable interactions, share good practice, and coordinate activities between the member societies, to the benefit of their individual membership. Participating INORMS Members are listed in Appendix A.

2020 Awards for Excellence

The INORMS Awards for Excellence in Research Management Leadership have been established to recognise outstanding examples of research management leaders who have made substantial contributions to the research management profession internationally. Award recipients will be announced at a gala dinner at the 2020 INORMS Congress in Hiroshima, 25-28 May 2020.

Eligibility Criteria

Each participating INORMS member is invited to select one (1) awardee from their association who meets the following criteria:

- Be a current financial member of a participating INORMS association (refer to list in Appendix A);
- Provide evidence of how their contributions are congruent with the objectives of INORMS
- Provide evidence of their outstanding contributions to the research management profession; and
- Provide evidence of how they will continue to provide visionary leadership in research management internationally.

Restrictions

Current members of the INORMS Council and Working Group are ineligible for consideration during their term of office. Nominations cannot occur until the candidate has stepped down officially from the INORMS Council or Working Group.

Each participating INORMS member shall be responsible for identifying the most appropriate awardee from their association for the Awards for Excellence in Research Management Leadership. This includes managing the call to their respective membership and establishing fair and equitable procedures to ensure that the assessment criteria are fulfilled.
